Yes, in the broadest sense of the word, “educational”. We visit cultural centers and historic sites and have talks and discussions on many aspects of history, culture and nature. But this is only a portion of the educational experience. We believe that it is equally educational to meet local people on a non-commercial basis, visit their homes and even try to learn a few words in the native language. Sometimes the most “educational” moments are spent sipping a cold drink in a street market and trying out some newly learned Arabic or French phrases.

All local transportation is included in the land price of the trip. We use an air-conditioned coach for road travel. We also travel by plane, 4-wheel-drive vehicles, camel and by boat.

We always stay in good accommodations that have been chosen on the basis of location, atmosphere and local charm.

Our trips run in February and the weather can be cooler at this time of year.

Daytime temperatures are around 52°F-63°F (11°C-17°C), although the further south you go, the higher the temperatures are. Rain in the north averages about 2 inches a month at the times we visit but there are places in southern Tunisia that haven't seen rain for years.

8. WHEN IS PAYMENT DUE?

A non-refundable deposit of $500 (plus insurance if you require it) is due at time of booking and will reserve your place on the tour. Payment of the full land cost is due 120 days before departure. Cancellation charges are applicable and are outlined in the “Terms and Conditions” section of our brochure.
